They Want a Stay of Proceedings.

The National Rifle and the Old Guard of the Veteran Corps each requested the Secretary of War yesterday to be allowed to keep their arms for the present. The Rifles argued that they have not finally refused to join the District National Guard, but are waiting to see what course Congress will take in the matter; also, that they are now preparing for the Chicago drill, and the Richmond drill will later have their attention. The Secretary will give a reply to-day.

Judson Kilpatrick," and Mr. John McKinley, editor of the National Zephyr, and Mr. A. C. Post will present a few sketches of life in Confederate prison pens.

Best Goods are Put in Smallest Parcels.

The old proverb is certainly true in the case of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are little, sugar-wrapped pellets, scarcely larger than mustard seeds, containing as much cathartic power as is done up in the biggest, most repulsive looking pill. Unlike the big pills, however, they are mild and pleasant in their operation—do not produce griping pains, nor render the bowels constipated after using.

Died Suddenly.

Mr. Granville P. Cooper, who for many years has been connected with Thomas Dowling in the auction business, died suddenly about 11 o'clock Wednesday night at his home, corner Sixth and M streets northwest. He was highly respected by all who knew him, and was a well-known Mason and member of the K. of P.
